

THE UNIVERSITY OF BRITISH COLUMBIA
Department of Mechanical Engineering

The Department of Mechanical Engineering at the University of British Columbia seeks an outstanding individual for a tenure-track position at the Assistant or Associate Professor level. The starting date will be January 2010, or as soon as possible thereafter. Particular areas of interest include, but are not limited to,

1. Sustainable transportation
2. Green buildings
3. Biomechatronics
4. Applied Mechanics

The ideal candidate will complement our existing strengths, develop a strong, externally funded research program, contribute high quality undergraduate and graduate teaching, and provide service to the University and community. Industrial experience is an asset. She/he will hold a Ph.D. degree or equivalent in Mechanical Engineering or a closely related field and will be expected to register as a Professional Engineer in British Columbia.

Further information on the department is available at www.mech.ubc.ca, and information on the employment environment in the Faculty of Applied Science is available at www.apsc.ubc.ca/careers.

The University of British Columbia hires on the basis of merit and is committed to employment equity. Mechanical Engineering is strongly committed to diversity within its community and especially welcomes applications from women, visible minority group members, Aboriginal persons, persons with disabilities, members of sexual minority groups, and others who may contribute to further diversification of ideas. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and Permanent Residents will be given priority. Applicants should submit a curriculum vitae, a statement (1-2 pages) of technical and teaching interests and accomplishments, and names and addresses (fax/e-mail included) of four referees to:

Professor Sheldon Green, P.Eng., Head,
Department of Mechanical Engineering,
The University of British Columbia,
Vancouver, B.C., V6T 1Z4, Canada.

The closing date for applications is September 1, 2009. Please do not forward applications by e-mail.
