

Studying Abroad - ETH Zurich

Alexandre Caron - Indy 1T6 + PEY

David Scott - Mech 1T6 + PEY

- Destination: ETH-Zurich, Switzerland
- When: Winter semester 2015

The logo for ETH Zurich, featuring the word "ETH" in a bold, black, sans-serif font, followed by "zürich" in a black, sans-serif font with a lowercase 'z' and a lowercase 'ü'.

Agenda

- Why Zurich
- Process
- Trip preparation
- Culture & Living abroad
- Highlights
- Challenges

Why Zurich & Process

Why Zurich

- Biggest decision factors
 - Course restriction
 - Language of instruction
- Europe and central location
- Very prestigious University

Application Process

1. Applying through CIE (Statement of Interest)
2. Coordinating with MIE
3. Applying at ETH Zurich
4. Acceptance
5. Trip preparation

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO

Department of Mechanical and Industrial Engineering

Preparation

Study abroad prep

- Visa application
- Courses selection and approval (Study plan)
- CIE Safety Training
- Living accommodation
- Financing (CIE bursaries, ETH bursaries)
- Cellphone plan
- Health and Travel Insurance
- Exchange handbook

Culture & Living Abroad

- Language
- Friends & Social (International Student + Locals)
- Be open to new experiences
- Take advantage of your time and your location abroad

Highlights - Zurich

Highlights - Zurich

Highlights - Zurich

Highlights - Friends

Highlights - Friends

Highlights - Travels

Highlights - Travels

Highlights - Travels

Highlights - Travels

Highlights - Travels

Highlights - Travels

Highlights - Travels

Challenges

- Living accommodation
- Course selection
- University & Courses

Next Steps

Start planning now

- 2nd or 3rd year is the best time to go on exchange

MIE

- Very helpful for courses approval
- Study Plan preparation

CIE

- Exchange related activities
- Any questions regarding the application process

