

Mechanical & Industrial Engineering
UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO

Bio-oil use in burners and engines

We are working with companies in Canada, Finland and Brazil to develop burners and engines that can operate on a bio-oil, a biofuel made from wood waste. The student will work closely with graduate students to conduct experimental research.

Supervisor: Murray Thomson
murray.thomson@utoronto.ca