TENURE-TRACK FACULTY POSITION in MECHANICAL - MINING ENGINEERING

The Bharti School of Engineering at Laurentian University invites applications for a Tenure-track faculty position in Mechanical or Mining Engineering at the rank of Assistant or Associate Professor. The preferred start date of the appointment is July 1, 2016. The successful candidate will be part of the Bharti School of Engineering. The Bharti School of Engineering offers programs leading to B.Eng. degrees in Chemical, Mechanical, and Mining Engineering, as well as M.Eng., M.A.Sc. and Ph.D. degrees in Natural Resources Engineering.

Candidates should have completed, or be near completion of a PhD in Mechanical or Mining engineering, at the start date of the appointment. The successful candidate will demonstrate a strong potential for outstanding teaching contributions at the undergraduate and graduate levels, and an ongoing commitment to academic and pedagogical excellence in support of the school’s programs. Our programs incorporate innovative approaches to engineering education, with emphasis on professional skills development and building a rapport with students. The successful candidate is also expected to maintain a strong research program. Preferred areas of research may include, but are not limited to, machinery maintenance and diagnostics, robotics and automation, HVAC, mining equipment design, or other mining-related applications of mechanical engineering.

The School has recently endeavored to create a new program option in Mechanical Engineering with a focus on mining applications. The incumbent will have the opportunity to be involved with the development and leadership of this initiative.

The successful applicant will be expected to be licensed as a Professional Engineer in Ontario at (or soon after) the time of appointment.

Laurentian University is a bilingual institution and has a policy of passive bilingualism (English/French) as a condition of tenure. Laurentian University is an equal opportunity employer and is strongly committed to employment equity and diversity within its community. Laurentian University especially welcomes and encourages applications from members of visible minorities, women, Aboriginal persons, members of sexual minorities and persons with disabilities. Applicants may self-identify as a member of an employment equity group. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply. However, Canadians and permanent residents will be considered first for this position.

Applicants should provide a cover letter including a succinct outline of qualifications and suitability for the position, a current curriculum vitae, a statement of research interests, a statement of teaching philosophy and a list of three references to Dr. Robert Kerr, Vice-President and Provost via email at vpap@laurentian.ca.

Review of applications will begin on May 1, 2016, and applications will continue to be accepted until the position is filled.
